

The Yonder Answer

1.The Journey Begins 2:12

As I lay onto the Earth that I call bed
And wait for the moon to turn to sun
My eyes are heavier now a mist is in my head
And I know my journey has begun...

2.The Answer's Yonder 3:48

The people stand and wait
The One to take the vow
And won't return until the task is done

Is it written in my fate?
Or do I write it now?
Won't matter anymore I am the One

I wonder where I am, I wonder where I wander
The voice inside me says "The answer's yonder"

Left in this darkened place
Or it's the dark inside me
I have to clear my mind to find the answer

There are so many ways
And paths that I can see
As life plays the drum I play the dancer

Still wonder where I am, For days and nights I ponder
The voice inside me says "The answer's yonder"

So many roads to take
In fact there are only two
All that going forth and one that's going back

It should be a mistake
To take the one I knew
And none'll ever know what's on the other track

Still wonder where I go, For days and nights I wander
The voice inside me says "The answer's yonder"

3. On The Crossroads 4:06

Did I make the right decision?
Is there at the end of this untrodden road what I'm looking for?
I may get lost, is there a reason?
Is it worth? Am I strong enough to carry on forevermore?

Will I regret it in the end?
My search can pay me back for what I lost? The life I left behind
Am I my only friend?
No one can help me now I took the lonely road and no one is by my side

I left the crossroads far behind me
I turn my back and never should return
Soon the mist will rise above and hide me
Nothing I know but one thing I want to learn

And so I walk away from my world
From what I used to have,
And the ones I used to love
A new reality will unfold
In silence I leave and I'll return,
In my dreams I will learn

I left the crossroads far behind me..

4. The Guides 6:01

As my thoughts were battling with my will
I feel the coming of the first guide
The clouds are moving aside

As the thunder cracks and breaks the still
A light pours onto my face
Cleanses me of my disgrace

An angel of unspoken beauty
Slowly descends and stands before me
I heard a heavenly voice "Are you waiting for me?"
"I am the guide in your heavy duty"

I am the one who knows the way
To heal the wounds and ease the pain
Together we'll forever reign
I am the one who shows the way

A silhouette shows in the distance

Distracts my eyes with his slow pace
As he bows and hides his face

Could he be my true assistance?
Could he free me from my darkest fear
As he's whispering in my ear with trembling voice hardly spoken

"My son I come from distant lands
Just put your faith in my old hands
And make an oath that won't be broken"

I am the one who knows the way...

The final picture is portraying
The sun descends and silence falls around
It finds me thoughtful laying on the ground
But still I hear their voices saying

I am the one who knows the way...

5. Follow Me 6:50

-I am your Father I am your God
I am the One Who created you
-Well nice story but it's so sad
That is so damn good to be true

-I am the Light in your course
I offer all that you can take
-Yeah, like beginning holy wars
And burning witches at the stake

Follow me

Follow me into the night
and I will lead you out of the darkness and towards the light
Never run, never hide
Never fear of the darkness behind
I will lead you towards the light
Never run, never hide
We will leave all the darkness behind

-I am your friend I'm your ally
I have a kingdom you can rule
-Can't you see that he does lie
Inside his hands you're just a tool

-I am the guide by your side
I offer more than you can take
-He is the evil in your mind
A deadly Sin the worst mistake

Follow me
Follow me into the night...

-I'm the one who points out the right from the wrong
-Another deception to take you from where you belong
-I lead the way and he'll be a king in my Hall
-I 'll lead the way and we're leaving before morning 's call

Oohhhhhh They're finally facing me
Ohhhhhhhh As night is embracing me

6.The Bravest of Them All 1:47

"I'm waiting for my guide, to come and show me the way I must walk.
Am I strong enough to bear the weight of the hundreds?
The weight of the thousands?
Of the millions...that will follow me?
And what If I'll be wrong?
May be I should never take that risk, maybe I should hide behind the back of a braver one.
But now it's too late, I'm the bravest of them all."

7.Choices 4:47

Night finds me standing still
My eyes fixed in the void
Should I decide against my will
A fate I can't avoid

Morning sun won't wait for me
My guides are coming soon
To lead us to our destiny
Or lead us to our doom

Question's in my mind
The answer's in my heart
A choice I have to make I wish I knew it from the start

Question's in my mind
The answer's in my heart
A choice I have to make I wish I knew it from the start
This time I cannot hide

This time I play my part
A choice I have to make I wish I knew it all from the start

The weight seems unbearable
For such a tiny man
I fear the end is terrible,
End of our master plan

Looking back I see a child
With a heart so pure and bright
The child emerges from the wild
Make sure the choice is right

Question's in my mind...

And now it's the time to decide for my kind
Will anyone remember my name?
The good and the evil just walk side by side
To me they all look just the same

Question's in my mind...

I wish I knew it all from the start

8. One Hand Red 4:24

One hundred years have passed
And more will come and go
And still I'll never know
Past has passed and future comes so fast

And how could I know that night
When I opened up the way
And all those I led astray
How could I know if I was wrong or right

And how could I know, how could I ever know

I wish that he was gone
His reign came to an end
The real king was sent
Stood up in pride and rightfully claimed his throne

Would purify my soul
But wouldn't wipe the pain
Just let me hope in vain
And won't return the lives that I stole

And now I know, it's late but I know ...

That he reigned with...

One Hand Red
With the blood of one hundred
Thousands of innocent men
One Hand Red
Leaving lives plundered
And the souls that died in his name

One Hand Red

One Hand Red...

9.His Ultimate Menace Against Nature (HUMAN) 4:07

Just like an army of locusts His menace destroys the lands
Unleashed with a fury not known to this world
What once was formed by the earth and the water inside His Hands
Now it totally rages out of control

Burn and destroy the heart of the air we breathe
Lungs full of poison and minds filled with hate
Marching this way the lethally swords never sheathe
Thinking this way we'll just seal our fate

Am I a part of this madness? cause I feel no pain
Is this a sign of the future that stands before me?
Can I wipe my name away from this endless list?
Or I am the reason for this blackened mist?

Scenes of destruction the Dark Ages are here again
Like a plague it rises to conquer mankind
Pity all those who're gone and those who remain
Pity all those who're faithfully led by the blind

Am I a part of this madness...

God made the world out of nothing
To nothing it will return
No time to make a turn or wait for something
Something to prevent
The upcoming end

Am I a part of this madness...

10.Inner Nature 3:44

You thought I was the evil inside your twisted mind
I was just the reason for that evil kind
You thought that I would grant you all that you have desired
But inside of you dwells the power, the power that you required

For the evil was your evil mind
Hiding forever in the darkest side
I was the follower not the guide
Of the evil lurking, of the evil in your mind

You thought that I would be the only one to blame
You see there is no way to fight your inner nature
But with me or without me you'll always be the same
And when in need of help, be sure there won't be a noble gesture

For the evil was your evil mind...

For the evil was your evil mind...

Your mind was the evil mind...

It's your inner nature
